

Ellis Wines is a highly respected, independent, family-run business based in West London, specialising in the import of wines and representing a number of award-winning producers from around the globe. Their extensive wine list includes over 1,000 wines from various regions worldwide. The company's story began over 200 years ago, in 1822, when Joseph Ellis founded the wine business. Today, the Ellis family continues to manage the company, with James, Robert, and William leading the way, while the next generation, Holly, Stefan, and Angus, has also joined the business.
